

Prof. Debnath Bhattacharyya is presently associated as Professor, Computer Science and Engineering Department with Vignan's Institute of Information Technology, Visakhapatnam-530049, India. He is also the Dean R&D of the Institute. He is former Foreign Professor, Hannam University, South Korea. Currently Prof. Bhattacharyya is the visiting Professor of Lincoln University College, Malaysia.

Professor Bhattacharyya received his M.Tech (Computer Science and Engineering) from West Bengal University of Technology, Kolkata, India and received his Ph.D. (Tech.) from University of Calcutta, Kolkata, India.

Professor Bhattacharyya is the Life Member of CSI, India, Member of ACM, IEEE, IAENG and IACSIT. He is also the ACM Distinguished Speaker from India.

He is the Editor of many International Journals. He published 4 books and more than 200 research papers in International Journals/Conference. He visited various Foreign Countries as Speaker / International Professor in Universities.

He published 175 Scopus and 114 Web of Science Papers. He published 4 Patents and he has 7 PhD Research Scholars currently.

Professor Bhattacharyya's Research interests include Security Engineering, Pattern Recognition, Biometric Authentication, Multimodal Biometric Authentication, Data Mining and Image Processing. In addition, he is serving as a reviewer of various International Journals of Springer, Elsevier, IEEE, etc., and International Conferences.