

Luísa Cerdeira is Auxiliary Professor at University of Lisbon, Institute of Education, in Educational Policy and Administration. Research interests on Education Policies and the Management and Financing of Higher Education Institutions. Doctorate in Educational Sciences, Specialty Policies and Organisation of the Educational System, approved with Praise and Distinction, attributed unanimously by the jury, Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences of the University of Lisbon).

Pro-Rector of the University of Lisbon 2010-2013;

Administrator (Head of Administration) of University of Lisbon 2000-2010.

FORGES' President since 2011 (Higher Education Management in the Portuguese Language Countries' Forum); Member of the HUMANE' Executive Committee (Heads of University Management & Administration Network in Europe; 2006 to 2011); Member of the RAUI' Executive Committee (Iberoamerican Universities Administrators Network; 2005 to 2012). External Consultant of the World Bank (Cape Verde Higher Education Financing; 2010, 2011 e 2012).

Member of the BRADAMO project "Brain Drain and Academic Mobility from Portugal to Europe." (2012-2015). Coordinator of the project CESTES (Cost of HE Students; 2010-2012), funded by the Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian. Portuguese Higher Education' expert in the EU Project on Cost-Sharing (HIS-Institute for Research on Higher Education). (2012-2014) "The impact of different cost-sharing models on effectiveness, efficiency and equity in higher education". Coordinated by Dominic Orr (Hochschule Informations System GmbH) and Alex Usher (Higher Education Strategy Associates).

Has several scientific articles published in books and Portuguese and foreign magazines.