

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Ashok Kumar Chaturvedi obtained the degrees of M.Phil. and Ph.D.in 1989 and 1992 respectively and has been teaching English Literature at Under Graduate and Post Graduate level for more than two decades. He has to his credit forty five research papers and three books titled Tribals in Indian English Novel , Lawrence Durrell and His Fictional World and Indian English Novel after 1950: The Subaltern Voices. He has also edited the book titled Rabindranath Tagore and W.B Yeats: A Comparative Study. An invitee in international conferences held in Egypt, London and Greece, he presented a research paper in the Fifth International Conference on Hierarchy and Power in the History of Civilizations held in the Russian State University, Moscow in 2009. He supervised eight Ph.D. Scholars and completed three research projects funded by The University Grants Commission of India. Actively engaged in literary research, he has participated in about twenty national and international seminars and conferences and presented his research papers based on his literary work. He has been invited to present his research paper in international conference to be held in the American University of Rome(Italy) in October 2014.