

Leonida Correia

SHORT BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Leonida Correia is Assistant Professor of Economics at the Department of Economics, Sociology and Management (DESG) and researcher in the Centre for Transdisciplinary Development Studies (CETRAD), University of Trás-os-Montes and Alto Douro (UTAD), Vila Real, Portugal. She is also the Vice-Director of the Master Program in Economics and Business Sciences, UTAD. She holds a PhD in Economics, with a specialisation in Economic Theory and Quantitative Methods, from UTAD in 2002. Previously, she had received her BSc and MCs in Economics from the School of Economics and Management, University of Porto (FEP-UP). Leonida's current research interests include business cycle synchronisation, stabilization policies, applied macroeconomics, labour markets dynamics, regional development and time series econometrics. She has presented and published several papers on these fields. Her work has covered a wide range of topics and she has been involved in diverse research studies and projects.