

Dr. Mohamed El Khouli

Dr. Mohamed El Khouli Egyptian nationality, was born in Cairo 10/07/1975, and holds a PhD in Bio-statistics and Demography from the University of Cairo in 2008 in the Arab Republic of Egypt, and an expert in the application of statistics, strategic planning, corporate excellence and quality systems. He is an Assistant Professor in Statistics Department of the Faculty of Business, Sadat Academy for Management Sciences in Cairo, the Ministry of State for Administrative Development in Egypt, and a coordinator of the central unit of the quality control within Sadat Academy. He also participated in an intensive training program at the American University in Cairo regarding the research methods in guidance and Evaluation the policies by applying on the population and health fields.

Concerning to his in-depth experience, he take over many positions like adviser of Corporate Excellence, and Section Head of the Planning in Western Region Municipality in Abu Dhabi UAE, and Senior Quality and Assessment Specialist at the University of Qatar in the state of Qatar, and Monitoring & Evaluation Officer at the Royal Netherlands Embassy in Cairo, and an Auditor of Quality and planning systems at the Ministry of Higher Education in Egypt. As well as he has published about 49 research in many different domains that are related directly with development, population and public health issues at national and international level.

Dr. Mohammed El Khouli, is an adviser in the evaluation of institutions and performance measurement in the governmental and nongovernmental organizations at Quality Assurance and Accreditation Advisory Group (QAAG), a member of the Egyptians demographers Association in Cairo (EDA), a member of the Egyptian Society of Statistics, and a member of the Community Development Association in Egypt. He holds certificates of appreciation from many institutions such as the Family Development Foundation in Sharjah, the Western Region Municipality, the University of Qatar in Doha, and the Center of the Ministry of Culture, Youth, Community Development in the Emirate of Abu Dhabi, and Higher Colleges of Technology in UAE.