

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Dr.Faaiz Ali Shah an Orthopaedic Surgeon by profession having highest postgraduate qualification of Pakistan in Orthopaedics & Traumatology is currently serving as Senior Registrar In Orthopaedics & Traumatology in Lady Reading Hospital, one of the oldest, the biggest and the best tertiary care government hospital in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa province. Besides practical work in orthopaedics I am affiliated to a number of national and international orthopaedic organizations and I have a very keen interest in research and publication. I am editor of one international medical journal and reviewer of a number of national and international medical journals. A large number of my original research articles/case reports have been published in national and international medical journals so far.