

Ibrahim A. Onour is a professor of Financial Economics and Econometrics, at the School of Management Studies, University of Khartoum. He taught in a number of Universities in Canada, Middle East, and Africa. He held a number of senior advisory positions at: The Ministry of Economics and Planning in Saudi Arabia; Arab Monetary Fund, Abu-Dhaby (UAE); and Arab Planning Institute in Kuwait. He published extensively in leading international journals in the areas of International Finance, Capital Markets, Energy Economics, Econometrics, and Operations Research. His published research work has been cited in over 180 published international research articles, monitored by Google Schollars citation and by Publish or Perish websites, as well as Research Gate

<http://scholar.google.com/citations?user=VnzPOToAAAAJ>

https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Ibrahim_Onour/publications?pubType=book&ev=prf_pubs_book

Most recent publications include a book and an article titled:

Capital Markets In GCC Countries: Volatility, Efficiency and Risk.

Publisher: Lambert Academic Publishers, Germany, 2012.

<http://www.amazon.com/Stock-Markets-GCC-Countries-Volatility/dp/3845418923>

South Sudan Secession: Modeling Fiscal Shock and its Spillover Effects on Sudan Economy, published in UNISCI Discussion Papers (University of Madrid, Spain), No.33, October 2013.

Assessing the Cost of Deposit Insurance and Moral Hazard Behavior in the Banking Sector in Sudan, Afro-Asian Journal of Finance and Accounting, Inderscience Publishers, Vol.4. No.3, 2014.