

LAIKIPIA

UNIVERSITY

Dean School of Education Profile

Dr. John Kanjogu Kiumi, PhD
Dean, School of Education, Senior Lecturer, Educational Management,
School of Education

Educational Background

- Ph.D - Educational Administration, Egerton University, 2008
- M. Ed.- Educational Administration and Planning, University of Nairobi, 1999
- B.Ed. (Honours), University of Nairobi, 1994

Brief Autobiography

Dr. John Kanjogu Kiumi began his academic/professional career as a primary school and secondary school teacher in Kenya, his native country. He attended Kamwenja Primary School Teachers' College and subsequently University of Nairobi where he obtained his B.Ed and M.Ed degrees. Upon receiving his M.Ed. degree in educational administration and planning, he joined Egerton University where he taught educational administration, planning and Economics of Education as Assistant Lecturer. He was later on (2006), promoted to lecturer grade. In 2008, he earned his PhD degree in Educational Administration in Egerton University. Thereafter, (2011) he was promoted to Senior Lecturer grade while teaching in Laikipia University (former constituent College of Egerton University) which is his current professional cum academic grade.