

Curriculum Vitae of Maria Matshidiso Kanjere

Summary

I am a black South African female whose qualifications include a PhD degree, specializing in Education Management from the University of Pretoria. I have also graduated with the Masters of Business Administration (MBA) from Turfloop Graduate School of Leadership (University of Limpopo). I have worked as a Head of Department at the University of Limpopo for three years, and also as a Senior Lecturer at the same institution for 5 years. I was attached to the Department of Educational Management Sciences. I have coordinated a project (Advanced Certificate in Education) on Leadership and Management for schools principals for two years. My leadership and management skills emanate from the years that I had spent as a school principal at Makadimane Secondary School at Ga-Mathabatha; Capricorn District. I have also worked as an Executive Manager for Academic Affairs at Southern African Wildlife College, a Private FET College next to Kruger National Park. I am a qualified Assessor (ETDP-SETA 115753) and Moderator. Currently, I am employed at University of Limpopo (Turfloop Graduate School of Leadership) as an MBA Senior Lecturer.

Achievements

I have successfully managed to lead the organization that I worked for to get the Council on Higher Education accreditation on two of its certificate programs. I have also successfully ensured compliance with the Department of Education on Further Education and Training (FET) programs whilst I was an Executive Manager at Southern African Wildlife College.

I have published a book titled "Knowledge Management as a competitive edge in a global economy" with Xlibris Publishers in the United Kingdom.
