

Alina Maydybura – Short Biography

Alina Maydybura has obtained her PhD in Finance from the University of Wollongong in Australia in 2014. She also holds Master by Research in Finance (2011) and BBA in Accounting and Finance (2009) from the University of Wollongong.

To date, Alina has got five years of teaching experience in finance and accounting at three leading Australian universities: University of Sydney, Macquarie University and the University of Wollongong.

Her primary research interests include: financial analysts, value investing and the performance of banks with publications in the Journal of Applied Research in Accounting and the Australasian Accounting Business and Finance Journal.