

CURRICULUM VITAE
for
Dr. Khazamula Samson Milondzo

Senior Lecturer: University of The Free State

Khazamula Samson Milondzo was born in Northern Transvaal (South Africa) in 1954 and Matriculated at Orhovelani High School in Mpumalanga. He also obtained the following Degrees at various universities: B.A. & B.A. Hons (University of the North), B.Admin Hons (Public Management) (Stellenbosch), B.Ed (University of Witwatersrand), M.Ed & M.A. Econ (University of Manchester, UK), P.hD. in Educational Management (University of the Free State: Qwaqwa Campus). Before he became an Academic, he was a Teacher, Head of Department and Principal at various schools. He also held a position as a Vice-Rector at Shingwedzi Teacher Training College. In 1996, he was appointed as a Lecturer and the Head of the Department in Didactics and Curriculum Studies at the University of the North (Qwaqwa Campus). Presently, he is working as a Senior Lecturer and Subject Head in Curriculum Studies in the University of the Free State. He presented papers at local, national and international Conferences and Seminars. Dr. K.S. Milondzo supervised and promoted Post graduates students at various levels and he is still serving as an external examiner for other institutions. He received various Academic Awards from the following organizations: Secondary Education (Phalaborwa Mining Company), M.Ed: Higher Education (British Council), M.A. Econ: Development Management and Administration (Luthuli Cultural Scholarship), National Council on Economic Education (NCEE) Training of Trainers program (United States Department of Education)