

Dr. Innocent Mutale Mulenga, Lecturer and Researcher, The University of Zambia, School of Education. Earned his Ph.D. (Curriculum Studies and Teacher Education) in 2015 from The University of Zambia; M.Ed (Curriculum Studies) in 2006 from The Catholic University of Eastern Africa, Nairobi Kenya and BA Ed (Geography, English and Religious Studies) also from The Catholic University of Eastern Africa, Nairobi Kenya. Has taught English language, Literature in English, Religious Education and Geography in secondary schools in Zambia. At the University of Zambia he has taught Curriculum Studies, Teacher Education and Educational Assessment courses, supervised students' research projects at postgraduate level. Dr. Mulenga has done consultancy in education with several organisations. He has contributed to regional and international conferences and journals in education. He has also authored book chapters and two books. He is a member of the International Editorial Board of the Excellency in Higher Education Journal (<http://ehe.pitt.edu>). His current research interests include curriculum studies, teacher education, educational assessment, trends in higher education and school effectiveness.