

Paola Partenza is Associate Professor at the University of Chieti-Pescara, Italy, (Department of Languages, Literatures and Modern Cultures, University “G. d’Annunzio”), where she teaches several undergraduate and graduate courses of English Literature. She published a volume on Tennyson’s poetry: Alfred Tennyson e la poesia del dubbio (Adriatica D.A. 2002¹, 2012), on female writings, Sguardo e narrazione. Quattro esempi di scrittura femminile. Wollstonecraft, Hays, Austen, Gaskell (Carocci, 2008), and on Jane Austen: Alchimie austeniane. Donne, fortuna e altre storie in Pride and Prejudice (Ombre corte, Verona 2015). She is Editor-in-Chief of the the book series Passages – Transitions – Intersections (Göttingen: Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht), and she has edited Dynamics of Desacralization. Disenchanted Literary Talents, (V&R unipress Göttingen, 2015). She is peer reviewer for several international journals. She is the author of essays in collections and journals. Among the many novelists and poets to whom she has devoted essays are William Godwin, Mary Hays, Mary Wollstonecraft, Jane Austen, Elizabeth Gaskell, Charles Dickens, Christina Georgina Rossetti, Alfred Tennyson, T. S. Eliot, Shakespeare, Andrew Marvell and Rebecca Harding Davies. Her research interests include Eighteenth-Century Literature and Culture; Nineteenth-Century Literature and Culture; Jane Austen; Female Writings; Victorian Poetry; the connection between Literature and Religion and Science and Literature. She has promoted and is currently the contact person for the “Inter-Institutional Agreement” LLP Erasmus between “G. d’Annunzio” University and METU (Ankara), and “G. d’Annunzio” University and Istanbul University (Istanbul). Moreover, she was a member of the scientific committee of CURT (University Society for Research on Theatre). She is a member of ANDA; TENNYSON SOCIETY (GB), and SEAA: SOCIETE D’ETUDES ANGLO-AMERICAINES DES XVIII^E ET XVIII^E SIECLES (PARIS).