

Dr. Philip Cheng-Fei Tsai is a professor working for International Business Administration department of Wenzao Ursuline University of Languages, Taiwan. He holds a B.S. degree in Business Administration from the National Cheng Kong University, and MBA and Ph.D. in Human Resource Management at National Sun Yat-Sen University, Taiwan. He also attend international MBA program of Lyon management school in France. Before as a professor, he also was a practitioner worked for multi-national corporation (Such as bp, GE, Makro...etc.) more than 25 years.

His research field is human resource and organization change. He has published academic papers in journals such as Journal of Management, Journal of World Business, Journal of organizational Change Management, International Journal of Human Resources Management, Total Quality Management & Business Excellence, International journal of manpower..etc.