

Dr. Ravit Rubinstein-Levi graduated from Ben-Gurion University of the Negev. Her Ph.D. dissertation studied the pension savings of unorganized employees and long term savings decision-making of the individual.

Her research agenda involves the theoretical and empirical study of long term savings and of individual decision-making. Her research has gained extensive media exposure.

Dr. Rubinstein-Levi Joined Ben-Gurion University of the Negev in 2015, she is adjunct lecturer at Bar-Ilan University, at The Open University and at Ashkelon Academic College, where she teaches various courses in finance. She is also a member of the P.I.F. The Pensions, Insurance and Financial Literacy Research Center, at Ben-Gurion University of the Negev.

Dr. Rubinstein-Levi served as CFO and as VP Marketing.