

Dr. Ioan-Gheorghe ROTARU, Associate Professor

About:

Dr. Ioan-Gheorghe Rotaru is Associate Professor (in Romanian the title is: Conf.univ.dr.dr.) of ‘Timotheus’ Brethren Theological Institute of Bucharest, Romania and President of Education Society for Romanian People, Bucharest, Romania. He is Licentiate in theology (B.Th.-1997), at the Faculty of Reformed Theology at the “Babes-Bolyai” University, Cluj-Napoca, Romania; Graduated from the Faculty of Law, Ecological University of Bucharest, Romania; Master of Art in Theology (M.Th.-2003), at “Babes-Bolyai” University Cluj-Napoca, Romania; Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.-2002) at the Institute of Philosophy and Psychology “Constantin Rădulescu Motru”, Romanian Academy, Bucharest, Romania, with the thesis Anthropological aspects in the patristic thinking; Doctor in Theology (Ph.D.-2009), with the distinction Magna cum laude, at “Babes-Bolyai” University Cluj-Napoca, Romania, with the thesis Sabbatarians in the context of Transylvanian life (XVI-XX centuries). He is the author of six books, of more than 200 studies and articles (over 30 articles indexed in major data base (ISI/BDI), of 6 university courses, present with a significant number of scientific papers at national (70) and international (20) conferences, member in various scientific organizations in the country and abroad, organizer or organizing team to 40 national and international conferences. He was cited by over 90 times in various scientific papers. He serves on the boards of numerous international conferences and journals.

Affiliation:

‘Timotheus’ Brethren Theological Institute of Bucharest, Faculty of Pastoral Theology. Romania.
President of Education Society for Romanian People, Bucharest, Romania.

Scientific specialization:

History of philosophy; History of philosophy and religion; Theology; Church law; Religious education.

Country:

Romania