

Aritz Saenz del Castillo Velasco (Vitoria-Gasteiz, 1980) Doctor in Contemporary History from the University of the Basque Country (2013), has focused his research mainly on the analysis of the history of women and gender during the Franco's period in Spain, focusing on the different feminized markets and works. He currently teaches at the Faculty of Education of Vitoria-Gasteiz and is focusing his research in the field of education for citizenship from a gender perspective.