

Scientific biography of Dr. Ahmad Reza Yalameha

Dr. Ahmad Reza Yalameha was born in Iran, Esfahan; he is the resident of Esfahan city.

He finished his elementary and junior high school (PBUH) in Talkhonche city. Then, he entered Taleghani high school in Talkhonche city. He got his diploma in culture and literature in 1996. Then, at the same year (1992) succeeded in entering the university of Esfahan for BA in the Persian language and literature in 1996. He graduated with the highest rank and average score of 17/94. Immediately, he entered the Esfahan University in 1996 for M.A in the Persian language and literature at same time he became the first Iranian student in scientific Olympiad of the country in 1998. He graduated from Esfahan University with the highest rank with the average score of 17/96. He entered the PhD of the Persian language and literature of Esfahan University in 1998 by getting the highest rank in written examination. He succeeded in getting his PhD from that university in 2004. He is one of the youngest professors in the Persian language and literature in country. He has 27 published books and 120 scientific-research articles.