
BIO/DESCRIPTION

I am serving as an Associate Professor in Department of Sociology & Social Anthropology, Wollega University, Ethiopia. I have done Ph. D in Sociology with 13 years of teaching experience at Pre-University, Graduate & Post Graduate level. I am also the Coordinator of Post-Graduate Department of Sociology & Social Anthropology and CDEP member alongwith Major Research Advisor for Masters' in Medical Anthropology & Masters in Sociology & Sociology Programme.

Successful supervision to M.Phil, Ph.d candidates and Masters' thesis alongwith publication of a book and several research based articles in renowned national and international publications are an added advantage to my credentials. Attending various national & international conferences, symposiums & workshops as a presenter, chair person & Jury member in the scientific committee is an element of my research and academic activities.

Gained Research experience to deal with subjective interpretation and probing into the perplexing problems at the subject, data management and case study. Created knowledge productivity & sustainable innovation through Knowledge Management & Exposure to academic environment in the field of

Areas of expertise includes - Personality development - Communication Skills Improvement - Research Methodology - Urban & Rural Sociology - Socio-Psychological Innovative Research - Knowledge Management - Criminology & Indian Society -Personality Development & soft Skills