

Steve Arbury

Ph.D., Rutgers University

Professor of Art History, Radford University, 1988-present. Chair 2003- present

Selected Presentations

- “Doesn’t Anyone Know Anything Anymore? Teaching Art History to Today’s College Students”
Southeastern College Art Conference, Charleston, WV, October 2007.
- “Some Thoughts on Marian Images in Spanish Art.” College Art Association Annual Meeting, Philadelphia, February 2002.
- “Successful Symbiosis: The University Art Museum and the Art Department.”
Southeastern
College Art Conference, Norfolk, VA, October 1999.
- “Piety and Politics in Spanish Catafalques,” Southeastern College Art Conference,
Richmond,
October 1997.
- “Regionalism and Censorship: The Arts Environment in Southwest Virginia,” Southeastern College
Art Conference, New Orleans, LA, October 1994.
- “Spanish Catafalques of the Sixteenth Century: A University Catafalque for Philip II,” Sixteenth Century Studies Conference, St. Louis, MO, December 1993.
- “Hapsburg Catafalques in Spain,” Portugal & Spain of the Navigators: The Age of Exploration, an international conference hosted by George Washington University, Washington, D.C., January
1992.
- “Spanish Catafalques of the Golden Age,” College Art Association Annual Conference, New York,
February 1990.

Selected Publications

- About Art, Dubuque: Kendall/Hunt Publishing Company, 2008.
- Co-author with Arthur Jones, Adolf Dehn: Selected Works on Paper from the Radford University Art Museum Collection, Radford, VA: Radford University Foundation Press, 2003.
- Editor and photographer of Scenes of Virginia from PICTURESQUE AMERICA, Radford, VA: Radford University Foundation Press, 2003.
- “Abduction,” “Judgment,” and “Laughter,” in The Encyclopedia of Comparative Iconography, Chicago: Fitzroy Dearborn, 1998.
- “Catafalque,” and “Alonso de Mena,” in The Dictionary of Art, 34 vols., London: MacMillan, 1996.
- “Spanish Catafalques of the Golden Age,” Rutgers Art Review 12/13 (1991-1992): 1-22.

Selected Grants, Academic Honors, and Other Awards

- Listed in Who’s Who Among America’s Teachers, 5th ed., 1998.
- Outstanding Young Men of America Award, 1985.

- Fulbright Scholarship/Spanish Government Grant, 1981-1982 and 1982-1983.
- Phi Beta Kappa (Albion College), 1975.