

Short Biographical note:

Assoc. Prof. Aslı Gül Öncel is a faculty member of the Management Department at Galatasaray University. She earned her bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering from Yıldız Technical University and master's degree in Industrial Engineering from Galatasaray University, in Turkey. She received her Ph.D. in Information and Communication Sciences from Picardie Jules Verne University in France. After she received her PhD degree, she did one-year postdoc in University of Québec at Trois Rivières in Canada and focused on sustainable development. She has been a visiting scholar at different universities such as University of Picardie Jules Verne, IUT Sénart-Fontainebleau, Brunel Business School. She served as the organizing committee member of the 2013 European Academy of Management (EURAM) conference in İstanbul. She was Erasmus coordinator of Management Department, member of the executive committee of the faculty and actually she is vice president of Management Department and member of the executive committee of Business Research Center. Since 2009, she has been teaching statistics, applied statistics and energy and environment politics at Galatasaray University in the management department and in the social sciences institute. Her principal research interests and publications are focused on sustainable development, climate change and environment.