

ERMAN BENLİ

Erman BENLİ is an attorney at law and a member of Ankara Bar. Erman completed his LL.M. at Bilkent University in Law and Economics and his undergraduate studies at Bilkent University in Law. He is currently Ph.D. candidate at Bilkent University Faculty of Law in the area of Private Law. His dissertation is about financial collateral arrangements.

Erman worked in Başkent University and Yıldırım Beyazıt University as a research assistant and he has experience in telecommunications sector as a competition lawyer.

His research interests lie in the area of private law, economics of law, competition law and telecommunications law. Erman has several publications both in national and international refereed journals. He also presented several papers in national and international conferences and seminars.