

Bernard Oliver, Ed. D.
Brief Biography

Dr. Oliver earned his M.A. and Ed. D. from Stanford University in Teacher Education and Curriculum Development. He has served as Dean of Education, Department Chair, Director and Program Coordinator at University of Texas at Austin, University of Missouri, Kansas City, Washington State University and the University of Florida. He has presented and published over 80 articles on leadership, diversity, college access/retention; and school improvement. He has also served as Assistant, Associate and Professor (tenured at numerous institutions including serving as the Endowed Chair in Urban Education. Dr. Oliver is currently serving as Dean of Education at the United Arab Emirates University in Al Ain, UAE.