

Biography of Dr. Md Mahmudur Bhuiyan

MD MAHMUDUR RAHMAN BHUIYAN, PhD in Sociology, is a Research Associate at The Centre for the Advancement of Teaching and Research (CATL) at the University of Manitoba and an Affiliate Researcher at Immigration Research West at the same University. Dr. Bhuiyan is actively engaged in research in three sociological fields: immigration and refugees, welfare state, and higher education teaching. His broader program of research involves exploring how cross-national variation in the character of policy and welfare states shapes the lives of diverse social groups, particularly the poor, immigrants, and the minority communities. Dr. Bhuiyan teaches Introduction to Sociology, Research Methods, and Comparative Welfare State at the University of Manitoba.
