

Angelica C. Di Maio has a degree in Cartographic Engineering from the Rio de Janeiro State University (UERJ-1989), a master's degree in Remote Sensing from the National Institute for Space Research (INPE-1994) and a PhD in Geography from the State University of São Paulo Júlio de Mesquita Filho (UNESP-2004). She is currently an associate professor in the Department of Geoenvironmental Analysis at Fluminense Federal University and Vice-Director of the Institute of Geosciences. She is involved in educational projects for teachers of the public education in Brazil. She is the leader of the GEOEDUC (Geoinformation in Educational Projects) Research Group (CNPq). She develops research and in the area of Geosciences and Environment, with emphasis on Cartography, working mainly on the following topics: geographic information system (GIS), remote sensing and cartography in education, cartography and citizenship. She is the Coordinator of the National Brazilian Cartographic Olympiad (OBRAC). It is nationally focused and targets high School students and the 9th grade of Elementary School.