

DARIESCU COSMIN'S BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Born in Iasi, Romania, on November, 1, 1974, he attended the Faculty of Law of "Alexandru Ioan Cuza" University of Iasi. He graduated in 1997. A year later, he obtained the Master Degree in Public and Private International Law at the same university.

In 1997, he joined the National Association of Romanian Bars, as a trainee lawyer in Iasi Bar. In 1998, he passed the full-practice exam and became lawyer in the same bar.

In 2004, he defended at the Faculty of Law of "Alexandru Ioan Cuza" University of Iasi, a Ph. D. thesis with the title "Personal Relationship between Spouses in Private International Law".

Since 2001, he has been teaching at the Faculty of Law of "Alexandru Ioan Cuza" University of Iasi (as assistant professor and as lecturer). He taught Roman Law and the History of the Romanian Law. At present, he is teaching Private International Law, Legal Sociology and International Trade Law (the last course in the Business Law master program of the same faculty). Since February 2016, he is associate professor (reader) at the same university.

His research interests are: Private International Law, International Civil Procedure, European Private International Law, International Trade Law, the History of Private International Law and Legal Sociology. In the field of Private International Law he wrote twenty-five papers and books.

Since 2012, he is arbiter in the Court of Arbitration of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Iasi.