

Eliza Claudia FILIMON is a Lecturer of English at the University of the West in Timisoara. Her PhD degree in British Literature, Heterotopia in Angela Carter's Fiction: Worlds in Collision, reflects her main academic research fields, literature, film studies and translation studies. She has published papers on translation studies, literature, film and cultural studies, in national and international volumes- (A Blend of Sound and Image - The Music Video, Scent Captured in a Jar- Perfume- the Story of a Murderer, Movie Tricks and Craft in Oz, the Great and Powerful Sounds, Voices, Narrators- The Shawshank Redemption Novella and Movie).

Eliza Claudia Filimon is an editor of RJES academic journal (Romanian Journal of English Studies), and organizer of the National Translation Contest for Students- Shades of Meaning. She is a member in the international training and assessment bodies of English as Second Language- Cambridge ESOL, IELTS and ILR,