

I've obtained my Ph.D. from the university of London 1977. Have supervised several M.Sc. and Ph.D. student's . Have refereed several works for journals, universities, and prizes. My biodata is published in Who's Who in the world (Marquis). Some of my works are cited in international books. Have published 6 books and more than a 100 research works in different journals. Have been cooperating with several scientists from different countries. Have organized several conferences and attended many others in different countries. Have been an editor and a referee in several journals . Have been involved in teaching several courses for under graduate and postgraduate students . I have introduced new teaching methods using famous multimedia for theoretical and experimental teaching. Presently a member of APS, ATINER and a fellow of the institute of physics. Have been invited to give a Colloquium at the University of Texas A&M University USA.