

Ihor Yaskal (born February 27, 1982 in Dnipropetrovsk region). In 1999 entered the Chernivtsi State University, later moved to Chernivtsi National University, where I graduated as a bachelor (2003) and master (2004) of economy. In 2006 I entered to graduate school at the Department of International Economy in Chernivtsi National University. In 2010 I performed thesis "Features of regional economic integration regulation" specialty 08.00.05. – Development of productive forces and regional economy.

Since 2004 I worked as an assistant, assistant professor, associate professor at the Department of economy of enterprise of the Chernivtsi National University.

In 2015 I have started to work as senior lecturer at the Department of economy of enterprise in Bukovyna State University of Finance and Economics.

The main educational courses:

"Innovation and investment management",

"Social responsibility",

"Planning and control at the enterprise"

https://scholar.google.com/citations?hl=en&user=C_RTVKgAAAAJ&view_op=list_works&gmla=AJsN-F5TecY02ECSFPrsH8E9uayfvxgcHT8-srfhyrhg5T8zxUqIJW2ljCg4HFRCbTph90tFFDxky9yQJIUNMb82h4qxaybwLq7sSfJIWC9T3-8IE6K-4o