

Janusz Wielki is a Professor of Opole University of Technology (Poland) and a Head of the Department of E-Business and Electronic Economy at the Faculty of Economics and Management. He received his Ph.D. in economic science from Wrocław University of Economics (Poland) in 2000. He holds the post-doctoral degree (habilitation) in economic science in business studies received from the Faculty of Management of University of Warsaw (Poland) in 2014.

His research interests include e-business, digital technologies ((Big Data, cloud computing, mobile technologies, Internet of Things etc.) and their impact on functioning and transformation of contemporary business organizations, utilization of information technology in functioning of business organizations, reengineering, knowledge management, virtual organizations, new concepts of management.

He is the author of 110 publications including two books and five chapters of books. He serves as an expert-evaluator of the e-business projects both for Polish and international institutions, including the European Commission. He is reviewer of several dozen conference and journal papers (both in Polish and English). He was a member of scientific committees of numerous national and international conferences