

I am Mr. Emmanuel John Kaka, a Nigerian. Basically I am a student in Malaysia. I worked in Modibbo Adama Federal University of Technology Yola, Nigeria. I have also worked as a senior lecturer in ATA Polytechnic Bauchi, worked as part-time lecturer in Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University and Federal polytechnic Bauchi.

I am doing my PhD course in Finance and done with several professional courses; Association of National Accountants of Nigeria. I have completed course from World Bank Institute in; a) Risk and opportunity: Managing risk for development b) Citizen engagement: A game changer for development. C) Introduction to sustainable development.

Presently I am reviewing articles for International Journal and Development Studies. I have contributed papers in National/International Journals, Conference and Seminars in the fields of accounting and finance, most especially in development studies.