

Bahram Kazemian is a PhD candidate and was born in Tabriz City, East Azerbaijan Province, Iran in 1979. He obtained his B.A. in English Translation and his M.A. in ELT from Islamic Azad University-Tabriz branch, Iran. Currently, he is the managing director of Unique Language Center in Tabriz. He has ten year experience in TEFL at different language institutes in Tabriz. His major thrust areas of interest and specialties are Language and Linguistics, Grammatical Metaphor and Transitivity in Systemic Functional Linguistics (SFL), Discourse Analysis, Critical Discourse Analysis, Rhetoric and Rhetorical Devices, Contrastive Studies and Error Analysis, Appraisal Framework in SFL, Morphology and Morphemes, Code-Switching and Semantic Analysis. He has published several articles, three book reviews in ISI journals and one book based on his areas of interests. He serves as a member of Editorial Boards and Reviewers for various journals.