

Rana Ejaz Ali Khan is associate professor of Economics and chairman, Department of Economic, The Islamia University of Bahawalpur, Pakistan. He has completed his Ph.D. in Economics from Bahaudin Zakarya University Multan, Pakistan in 2005. His research interest is Development Economics and Social Economics. HEC (Higher Education Commission of Pakistan) recognized him as approved supervisor for M.Phil. and Ph.D. candidates having HEC scholarships and 5 Ph.D. students are working under his supervision. He is Chief Editor, Journal of Agriculture and Rural Development; member Advisory Board, Pakistan Social and Economic Review, Pakistan Journal of Commerce and Social Sciences, Asian Economic and Social Review. Rana Ejaz Ali Khan has 70 publications, including a book titled Child Labor in Pakistan, and chapters in books. He has a book on Malnutrition in Children, currently in press. He is married and has three kids. In between times he likes walking, reading literature and listening music.