

Curriculum Vitae

Mr. Loukianos Klint holds a BSc (Ptychion) from Athens University of Economics and Business in International and European Economic Studies, an Economist's license from the Economic Chamber of Greece and an MSc from the University of Lancaster in International Business.

Mr. Klint is following a two-year (part-time) online MSc course at the University of York in Innovation, Leadership and Management.

Mr. Klint's current research interests include innovation, change management and leadership, with a particular interest in SMEs.