Dr. Lorenzo Gagliardi Department of Private Law and Legal History Milan State University Milan, Italy

SHORT CV NOTICE

Lorenzo Gagliardi (PhD, Padova University) is Associate Professor of Roman law and Legal History at the Milan State University, where he teaches at the undergraduate and graduate levels, including, among others, courses concerning Institutions of Roman Law, History of Roman Law, Law and Rhetoric in Ancient Greece. Since 2010 he is Director of the Section "Roman Law" of the Department of Private Law and Legal History.

He also teaches at the Bocconi University of Milan and at the Carlo Cattaneo University of Castellanza (Varese, Italy) and in the past he has tought at the Bergamo State University.

He is member of the Italian Society of Legal History, of the Working Group on Archaic and Classical Greek Law (DEGRIAC) of the University of Buenos Aires, and of the Research Group on Roman Cities of the Complutense University of Madrid.

He has received scholarships to attend several foreign universities, among others, the University of California at Berkeley and the Universities of Vienna, Salzburg and Graz.

He is regularly invited as rapporteur in international congresses concerning his research field (in the past he has been invited in several institutions such as the Pontificia Universitas Urbaniana of Vatican City, the Northwestern University at Evanston [Illinois], the University of San Paolo, the University of Poitiers, the École Française de Rome, the Austrian Academy of Sciences and the Israel Academy of Sciences).

He is member of the Editorial Staff of Dike. Rivista di storia del diritto greco ed ellenistico and of the Editorial Board of several international scientific journals, among others, Social Sciences, Scienze e Ricerche, History Research and American Journal of Social Science Research.

His publications include three books, as well as more than fifty research journal articles and monographs, book chapters, reviews, and feature articles. His research focuses on Roman law, ancient Greek law, Byzantine law, Roman history and Roman epigraphy.