

C.V.

Maria Otilia Pereira Lage is a postdoctoral fellow in Social and Historical Studies (2010, UC) PhD in Modern and Contemporary History (2001, UM) and Master in History of Population (1995 A), BA in History (1976, UP), Postgraduate in Library, Archives and Documentation (1979 UC) and specializing in School Administration (1992 IPP). He is Associate Professor of the Lusophone University of Porto, lying retired. It is currently a researcher at the Faculty CITCEM- / GI: Memory, Heritage and Identity Construction.

It is guiding and examiners of masters theses and PhD and author of a large number of books, magazine articles and communications to congresses, production published at national and international level in the scientific fields of their specialties.

<http://www.citcem.org/investigadores/integrados>