

PROFILE OF DR. MUFTAU ADESINA ABAYOMI

Dr. Abayomi is a Certified Project Management Professional (PMP). He obtained Ph.D. (Agricultural Economics) from the Federal University of Technology, Akure in 2002. He also holds B.Sc. in Agricultural Economics (Ibadan), MBA (Ilorin), and M.Sc. Economics (Unilag). He has over two decades' wealth of experience in the Nigerian Banking Industry. His last role at Wema Bank Plc was the position of Zonal Manager, Lagos Mainland with 14 branches under him. He voluntarily exited the Bank on 31st March, 2012 and joined Academics.

Prior to joining Wema Bank, Dr Abayomi had a stint at the Financial Institutions Training Centre (FITC) as a Senior Consultant where he led the research function of the organization. As an Associate of the Certified Institute of Pensions, and an Associate of the Institute of Capital Market Registrars, Dr. Abayomi is also a Fellow of the Institute of Strategic Management of Nigeria, and a national security strategist.

He had lectured at the Achievers University, Owo, Nigeria before joining the Federal University of Technology, Akure. He has attended many domestic and off-shore courses and has published articles in both local and international journals. As part of his contributions to the society, Dr. Abayomi was also a member of the Research and Strategic Planning committee of the Chartered Institute of Bankers of Nigeria (CIBN) from June, 2004 to December 2012. His research interests include: Development Economics, Monetary Economics, Production Economics as well as Resource and Environmental Economics.