

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

The author was born in May 1980, Ethiopia. He completed his elementary education in July 1992 at Ewuket Fana elementary school in Bahirdar town, Ethiopia. He attended Fassilo junior secondary school from September 1992 to July 1994 and his high school education from September 1994 to July 1998 at Tanahaik comprehensive secondary school in Bahirdar town, Ethiopia. He joined the former Alemaya now Haramaya University, Ethiopia in September 1998 and graduated with B.Sc in plant Sciences in July 2002. He was employed by Amhara Regional Agriculture Research Institute (Adet Agricultural Research Center) in December 2002 and was working as a variety improvement researcher of cereal crops focused on food and malting barley. He joined the plant breeding/genetics stream of the school of graduate studies, Haramaya University, Ethiopia in September 2005 and he fulfilled the requirements of the degree of Master of Science in plant breeding and graduated in 2007. He re-joined the crop research division of Adet agricultural research center in September 2007 and was working as a crop improvement researcher till September 2013. Starting from October 2013 he has been working as an instructor and researcher in plant breeding and postharvest biology stream of plant science department, college of agriculture and environmental science, Bahirdar University, Ethiopia