

Mario Nicolielo is a researcher in Business Administration at University of Genoa, where he teaches Business Administration and Management Accounting. His research interests are in Accounting Education, Accounting History, Sport Management and Olympic Events.