

Biography of Dr. Jorge Emilio Nunez:

Dr. Nunez started his academic career, teaching “Introduction to Law” in 1997 in Universidad Nacional de La Plata, Argentina. He was later awarded his PhD at The University of Manchester. He joined MMU as a Lecturer in Law in 2013 and has also taught Law in Beijing, China-EU School of Law.

The research of Dr Nunez is mainly in the field of legal and political theory and public international law and relations. His latest book entitled “Territorial Disputes and State Sovereignty: International Law and Politics” (Routledge 2020) adopts a multi-disciplinary approach and opens new ground for research on territorial disputes. Previously he has published a global monograph “Sovereignty Conflicts and International Law and Politics: A Distributive Justice Issue” (Routledge 2017), which combines these interests in a unique form.

Jorge has published several articles worldwide in three different languages—i.e. English, Spanish, and Russian. Furthermore, he has presented and delivered papers in several international seminars and congresses, mainly related to legal and political theory and international law. He is also member of several academic and professional organisations across the globe.
