

Buğra Özer received his BA from the Department of Political Science and Public Administration, Middle East Technical University, Ankara, Turkey in 1996. Dr. Özer gained his MA from Bilkent University, Department of Political Science and Public Administration, Ankara with his dissertation on the transformation of public bureaucracy in 1998. He continued his Ph.D. studies in Public Policy Program of Carleton University Ph.D. Program in Public Policy of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada between 1999 and 2004. He got his Ph.D. in Economics, Celal Bayar University, Manisa, Turkey in 2010 with his work on health care economics and health care policy making.

He presently serves as an associate professor the head of Department of Political Science and International Relations at Celal Bayar University, FEAS, Manisa alongside with the vicedirectorship of Graduate School of Social Sciences, Manisa, Turkey. He was also a visting fellow at the Reagent's University, London, United Kingdom for the summer of 2013. Dr. Özer's reserach interest lays in the field of contemporary policy making and democratization along with democratization participation theories with emphasis on the processes of remaking of Turkish public policy making in line with the accession talks of Turkey to the European Union along with local administrations in Turkey