

Curriculum Vitae

Najmuddin obtained Ph.D.in 2015 respectively and has been teaching Seminar and Research Media and Journalism Media and Social movement at post graduate, Media and communication Department of Faculty Sains Social and Political, Andalas University. An presenter international conferences held in Indonesia and Malaysia, he presented a research paper in International Conference in Political Participation of youth in Indonesia and Citizenship Norms and Political participation of young generation in Indonesia. He has been awarded the Graduate on Time for the year 2015 by National University Malaysia. Actively engaged in literary research, he has participated in about national and international seminars and conferences and presented his research papers based on his literary work. He has been invited to present his research paper in international conference to be held in the Abu Dabi, Bangkok, Seoul south Korea, and Tokyo.