

Romeo P. Peña is an Assistant Professor of Languages (Filipino and Japanese), Literature and Creative Writing and the Chief of Center for Social History at the Polytechnic University of the Philippines. He is also currently a PhD Philippine Studies student at the Asian Center, University of the Philippines, Diliman. He has received various national and international writing awards like in the Filipino Migration to Hawaii Centennial Literary Prize (2006), UNESCO and Goi Peace Foundation of Tokyo Japan International Writing Contest for Young People (2007), Commission on Filipino Language Writing Award (2010 and 2012). He presented papers in various national and international conferences and seminars. He is currently the President of the Philippine Society of Young Educators of Languages and the Arts. He is a Senior Member of Royal Institute of Educators, Singapore and he is also a member of African and Asian Writers Association based in Cairo, Egypt.