

Short Bio

Anjali Sadanand is an architect and Interior designer presently working as a full time Professor at MEASI Academy of Architecture ,Chennai ,India. She is an Alumnus of School of Architecture and planning and Bartlett College of Architecture. She has approximately 20 years experience in the field and 11 years experience in education. As an architect she has worked under reputed firms in India . She has also been involved in the design and making of handcrafted furniture. She has participated in two projects that deal with preserving Colonial heritage in Chennai. Her research interests are varied and range from research into furniture, history and to aspects of architecture that relate to design and making and socio cultural aspects of architecture.