

Dr. Shadi Neimneh has a Ph.D. in Literary and Cultural Studies (Oklahoma University, USA, 2011). He is currently the Vice-Dean of Arts College at Hashemite University (HU), Jordan. He teaches a wide range of undergraduate and graduate courses in the Department of English Language and Literature at HU. He has published many articles in international journals across the world on different manifestations of literary modernism and the fiction and non-fiction of the South African writer J. M. Coetzee. Over the past few years, Dr. Neimneh has also worked as Chair of English and Assistant Dean of Arts at HU.