

Dr Daniel Shorkend is a practicing artist, academic and researcher. He has several books published, both fiction and non-fiction, and continues to publish in academic journals as well as lectures on art, academic writing and the interdisciplinary at Gordon College and Shaanan College.. He resides in Haifa, Israel and hopes to expose many to the beauty and depth of art, thus enhancing the creative potential that is within a person towards a vision of a healthier world.