

Sibel ALMELEK ISMAN graduated from Boğaziçi University with a major in Psychology. She received her Master of Science and Ph. D. in Western and Contemporary Art History from Ege University. She is an Assistant Professor at Fine Arts Education Department of Dokuz Eylül University Buca Faculty of Education. Her research interests are various themes depicted in European art history since the Renaissance related to mythology, iconography, literature, dance and music.