

SHORT BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Snježana Babić is lecturer at the Polytechnic of Rijeka, Business department. She was member of several national project teams and reviewer for several international conferences and journals. Member of the chair's steering committee of „CE - Computers in Education“ at International Conference MIPRO (Croatia) and committee member of International conference (ISPCM). She is author or co-author of several papers, published in national or international Conference proceedings and journals. Her research fields are: teachers' adoption and acceptance of e-learning, competencies of online teachers , human-computer interaction, integration of e-learning technologies into teaching process