

StamelosCharalampos (Harry) Stamelos

Short CV

Harry Stamelos teaches law in the European University Cyprus Law School. His areas of academic interests include History of Law, Competition Law, Maritime Law, Aviation Law, Sports Law, Civil Law and Jurisprudence. Since 2000 he is an attorney of the Athens Bar in Greece.

Recent books:

- Free and unfair competition law of the USA, An introduction to the federal law and the laws of Fifty States, Nomiki Bibliothiki (Greek), 2018
- History of Law of Greece and Cyprus, Nomiki Bibliothiki (Greek), 2018

Recent articles:

- The legal regime of air transport in Cyprus, Legal Periodical Entha, European University Cyprus Law School, 3, 2018
- The lawsuit for damages in American and European law of competition, Dikaio Epiheiriseon kai Etaireion (Hellenic Law Journal on the Law of Enterprises and Companies), 170, 2018

Recent speeches in conferences:

- A short introduction and a speech with antiphonesis in the event ‘The law of Ancient Cypriot Kingdoms and the Tablet of Ancient Idalion’ on the occasion of the presentation of my book under the title ‘History of Law of Greece and Cyprus’, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2018, 27 November 2018, European University Cyprus Law School, 2018 (Greek)
- A speech and coordination with antiphonesis in the event ‘Public and Private Enforcement of Competition Law in Cyprus, Greece, the EU and the USA’ on the occasion of the presentation of my book under the title ‘Free and unfair competition law of the USA, An introduction to the federal law and the laws of Fifty States’, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 4 December 2018, European University Cyprus Law School, 2018 (Greek)
- A speech under the title ‘Ancient Cypriot Kingdoms: Political and Legal Aspects of their Regimes (1.200 to 30 B.C.)’ in the 6th Annual International Conference on Humanities & Arts in a Global World of ATINER, Athens, 3 January 2019 (English)