

A graduate of Bachelor of Arts in Filipinology minor in Mass Communication and Master of Arts in Filipino from Polytechnic University of the Philippines, Sta. Mesa Manila. He is currently writing his dissertation for the degree Doctor of Philosophy Major in Bilingual Education in New Era University. He became a full time faculty of San Beda College and was considered to be the youngest Department Head of Filipino in Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Marikina. Likewise, he is currently the youngest Dean of College of Arts and Sciences at the same school which consists of nine (9) departments with almost 175 faculty members. Aside from teaching subjects like language and literature, he also teaches foreign language Nihonggo, Social Sciences and Mass Communication subjects. He also served as Graduate Studies Professor under Master of Arts in Education.

He has been a speaker from various International and National Conferences. He is an author of college books, one of which is entitled Arigatou, a translated Japanese-Filipino book. He was fortified as leader where he received award namely "Dangal ng Bayan" and became one of the finalists of "Top Ten Young Employee of the Philippines". In fact, he became the SK chairman of their Barangay for five (5) consecutive years. In addition, he is the Vice President and founder of Philippine Society of Young Educators of Languages and the Arts, Inc which aims to hone young educators of Languages and the Arts. He is also an adviser of Kabataang Pangarap ni Rizal also known as KAPARIZ-Marikina Chapter. He is the Academic Adviser and the founder of Christian Brotherhood International or CBI – PLMar Chapter. He is a regular volunteer teacher of Summer-Prekindergarten Program of New Era University and also a part of the National ALS Advocacy Orientation, Training and Community Immersion. Because of this, he received a Leadership Award recognizing his hardwork as volunteer teacher.